WHITMAN COUNTY POSITION DESCRIPTION

Effective Date: December 17, 2012
Position Title: Corrections Officer
Job Family Classification #: 172
Department Title: Sheriff
Department Code: 140
Pay Grade: 9 (COSS)
FLSA Status: Non-Exempt
Union Status: Represented, Corrections Officer and Support Staff (COSS)
Reports to: Jail Sergeant and/or Jail Superintendent

BASIC PURPOSE

Maintain a close security watch of inmates at the county jail facility, assist in the care of inmates, participate in receiving, booking and processing prisoners, and perform dispatching.

NATURE OF WORK

This is responsible work receiving adult prisoners, assuring their physical well being, guarding them in the county jail facility, and assisting with juvenile supervision. The employee occupying this position will be responsible for making jail inspections as required by local and state law, monitoring inmates on closed circuit and intercom systems, observing inmate behavior, and taking disciplinary action in a manner consistent with state laws dealing with the incarceration of adults. Work will require the employee to be firm and consistent in daily contact with prisoners and exercise judgment and discretion to insure the safety of visitors and law enforcement personnel. Work will involve the operation of a variety of circuit televisions, intercom systems, kitchen equipment and utensils, and finger printing equipment.

Work is generally performed in a jail setting or correctional facility.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED AND RECEIVED

Supervision of other officers is not a normal responsibility of this position. Work is performed under the supervision of the Jail Sergeant and/or Jail Superintendent who assigns work and reviews shift activities for conformance with established procedures, rules, and regulations.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Effectively control jail inmates; operate a radio-transmitter-receiver unit, give and receive information and instructions in emergency and non-emergency situations; perform several tasks simultaneously under pressure; lift and carry items incidental to housekeeping.

NON-TECHNICAL ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Establish and maintain good working relationships with co-workers; follow oral and written instructions; communicate with inmates, co-workers, supervisors, and the public using both listening and speaking skills.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES:

Book and process prisoners into the county jail; conduct strip searches of prisoners of the same gender; issue coveralls, linen, and bedding; assign inmates to cells; orient inmates into jail routines.

Maintain order, discipline, and security of inmates in the county jail; allow inmates visits from attorneys and acquaintances; allow inmates to make phone calls; isolate inmates as needed.

Assist in the preparation and oversee the serving of meals; order food weekly; train trustees in proper food handling techniques; monitor cleanup procedures.

Oversee the distribution of medication to inmates; insure that health inventory is taken at every booking; maintain inventory of medications; distribute prescribed medicine as appropriate.

Periodically search cells and inmates for contraband; inspect incoming and outgoing mail according to procedures; escort inmates to various locations.

Maintain various departmental, fiscal, and other office records according to standard procedures; type forms; prepare report data involving tabulation of posted data and basic arithmetical computations; control access to information consistent with office procedures and state guidelines.
