

Sandy Jamison

Whitman County Auditor
400 N. Main Street
Colfax, WA 99111
509-397-6270
auditor@co.whitman.wa.us

PRESS RELEASE

Due to a shortage of staff related to the ongoing Coronavirus issue, the Vehicle and Vessel Licensing office in Colfax will be closed to the public for the next week. The tentative date for reopening is October 28, 2021.

All vehicle and vessel licensing services are still available at the county's two sub-agents:

Pullman Vehicle Vessel Licensing

1195 SE Bishop Blvd #3, Pullman, WA 99163

Open 9 am to 5 pm

Smith's County Store

116 W 4th St, Rosalia, WA 99170

Open 9 am to 4 pm

Due to a shortage of staff related to the ongoing Coronavirus issue, the Recording office in Colfax will be closed to the public for the next week. The tentative date for reopening is October 28, 2021.

All documents can be recorded electronically and marriage licenses can be obtained through the mail. Please visit the Whitman County website at <https://whitmancounty.org/> for more information on how to contact our recording department. You can also directly email our Recording Supervisor at crystnguenthner@whitmancounty.net

There will be a Recording "In" Basket at the main reception desk of the Public Works Department on the second floor of the Public Works Building where you can leave your documents to be recorded. They will be handled by my staff during the evening and you will be contacted about them.